Part IV: Allegiant Academy Statement of Beliefs

Allegiant Academy is a biblically-based model of education, and all employees hired within Allegiant Academy share in a core culture of spiritual DNA that forms the basis of how we treat ourselves and one another. Some slight variances in beliefs and behavior are normal in Christian institutions, of course, and many of these differences are often minor issues of personal opinion. In these matters of extra biblical nature, it is vital to learn to agree to disagree and to demonstrate respect for another. As Paul said in Hebrews 12:14, we should endeavor, where possible, to live at peace with everyone. That said, there are also specific doctrinal statements upon which Allegiant Academy is founded, and in these, students, staff, and faculty should find commonality in agreement. We believe:

THE WORD OF GOD

We believe both Old and New Testaments of the Bible to be the Word of God, without error in the original manuscripts, written under the inspiration of the Holy Spirit, and that the Bible has ultimate authority in all matters of faith and conduct.

(Psalm 19:7-9; 1 Corinthians 2:13; 2 Timothy 3:15-17; 2 Peter 1:20-21)

THE TRINITY

We believe there is one living and true God, eternally existing in three persons Father, Son, and Holy Spirit; that these are equal in every power, glory and perfection. That they execute distinct but harmonious offices in the work of creation, providence and redemption. By His own pleasure, God created, sustains, and rules all things. All things were created through him and attest to His glory.

(Matthew 28:19-20; Mark 12:29; John 1:1-4; Acts 5:3-4; 2 Corinthians 13:14)

REGENERATION

We believe all people are sinners by nature and by choice, and that they are, therefore, under condemnation. We believe that those who repent of their sins and trust in Jesus Christ as Savior are regenerated by the Holy Spirit. We believe that salvation from the guilt and condemnation of sin is possible only as the gift of God's grace.

(John 5:24; Ephesians 1:6-7; 2:8-9; Titus 3:5; 1 Peter 1:23)

THE CHURCH

We believe in the universal church, a living, spiritual body of which Christ is the Head and all regenerated persons are members. We believe in the local church, consisting of a company of believers in Jesus Christ, baptized on a credible confession of faith, and associated with worship, work, and fellowship. This body was formed on the day of Pentecost and will be completed at the coming of Christ for His own. The members of this one spiritual body are directed to associate themselves together in local assemblies for instruction, worship, prayer, fellowship, service, and the administration of the ordinances of baptism and the Lord's Supper. They are likewise to maintain the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace. We believe God has laid upon the members of the local church the primary task of giving the Gospel of Jesus Christ to a lost world.

(Matthew 28:19; Acts 2:42-47; 1 Corinthians 11:23-26; 12:13; Ephesians 1:22-23; 4:3)

SANCTITY OF LIFE / EDUCATION AND TRAINING

We believe that life begins at conception. (Psalm 139:13-16) We believe that all human life is sacred and is created by God in His image (Genesis 1:27), and is therefore of inestimable worth in all its dimensions, including pre-born babies, the aged, the physically or mentally challenged, and every other state or condition from conception through natural death. We believe that every person is created by God for a purpose (Jeremiah 1:4-5; Galatians 1:15), and is a gift from God (Psalm 127:3). We believe that God gives the primary responsibility of training children to the child's parent(s). We believe the parent(s) is charged with giving discipline and instruction of God according to biblical principles (Ephesians 6:4). We believe that as a Church we are to be deeply committed to providing biblical resources, teaching, training, and encouragement to assist the parent, and every person, to grow to be like Christ (Ephesians 4:13).

GENDER / GENDER IDENTIFICATION

We believe that God wonderfully and immutably creates each person as male or female. (Genesis 1:27; Deuteronomy 22:5) We believe these two distinct, complementary genders together reflect the image and nature of God. (Genesis 1:26-27) We believe that being man or being woman is a reality which is good and is willed by God, and comes to each from God, reflecting God's wisdom and design. (Psalm 139:13-16; Genesis 1:27) We believe that an individual's gender as a man or a woman, with some extremely rare exceptions, is based solely on that person's biological sex as determined at conception and as revealed at birth by that person's anatomy. (Psalm 139:13-16; Genesis 1:27) We believe that the rejection of, or any conduct with the intent to adopt a different gender or change one's gender or biological/anatomical sex, is a rejection of the image of God and His design within that person and is sinful and offensive to God (Genesis 1:27; Deuteronomy 22:5). All gender related references in this Constitution, including but not limited to male, man, female, or woman, is specifically limited to Gender as defined in this Section.

MARRIAGE

We believe that God designed and limited the expression of sexual intimacy to be the exclusive boundaries of a one man and one woman marriage covenant (Genesis 2:24-25; 1 Corinthians 7:3-5). We believe that God designed marriage to reflect the beauty and permanence of Christ's loving relationship with his bride, the Church (Ephesians 5:22-23; Revelation 19:7). We believe God established marriage to be a sacred, lifelong, exclusive relationship between one man and one woman (Matthew 19:4-6). We believe the term "marriage" has only one meaning: the uniting of one man and one woman in a single, exclusive union, as delineated in the Bible (Genesis 2:18-25). Because God has defined and ordained marriage as the covenant relationship between one man and one woman, we only recognize, honor, permit, or conduct marriages between one man and one woman.

SEXUAL PURITY

We believe that God commands that each individual abstain from any form of sexual impurity (Genesis 2:24; 19:5, 13; 26:8-9; Leviticus 18:1-30; Romans 1:26-29; 7:2; 1 Corinthians 5:1; 6:9-10; 7:10; 1 Thessalonians 4:1-8; Hebrews 13:4). We believe that any form of sexual immorality including but not limited to: adultery, fornication, homosexual behavior, bisexual conduct, bestiality, incest, and the use of pornography is sinful and offensive to God.

CHRISTIAN CONDUCT

We believe that Christians should live for the glory of God and the well-being of their fellow believers; that Christian conduct should be blameless before the world; that we should be faithful stewards of our possessions; and that we should seek to realize for ourselves and others the full stature of maturity in Christ. We believe that all who have been born again by God's transforming grace are secure in Christ forever. It is their privilege to rejoice in the assurance of their salvation, not on the basis of their own worthiness, but on the basis of God's faithfulness and the testimony of His Word. However, this assurance must not become an occasion for sin. The reality of their faith in Christ is demonstrated by subjecting their fleshly natures to the power of the Holy Spirit and by doing the good works for which He saved them, especially by demonstrating a Christlike love for one another. (Matthew 7:20; John 10:27-29; 13:34-35; Romans 6:13; 8:28-39; Galatians 5:16; Ephesians 2:10; 1 John 3:14,23; 5:13)

DEATH & ETERNITY

We believe that at death the souls of believers pass immediately into the presence of Jesus Christ. At death the souls of unbelievers pass immediately into torment. When Christ returns the souls of believers and unbelievers will be reunited with their bodies in resurrection. Believers in Christ will be resurrected unto eternal conscious joy and life with God. Unbelievers will be resurrected unto eternal conscious torment under the judgment of God. (2 Corinthians 5:8, Philippians 1:23, Philippians 3:20-21, 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18, 2 Thessalonians 1:5-12, John 5:28-29, Revelation 21:1-3)

Part V: Allegiant Academy Student Code of Conduct

Students and parents are expected to attend church on a regular basis.
_____(student initials)

Students are to follow the directions of Allegiant Academy teachers and staff at Allegiant Academy sponsored events, including but not limited to field trips and performances.
_____(student initials)

Students are to display appropriate conduct during class sessions. This includes courtesies such as refraining from unkind remarks, profanity, coarse jokes, or other language that demonstrates disrespect or a lack of charity.
_____(student initials)

Students are to demonstrate respect and kindness to all staff and program participants. Students are not to gossip, lie, bully, or engage in physical or verbal fights with one another. Appropriate and biblical conflict management tools will be modeled, taught, and expected at Allegiant Academy.
_____(student initials)

Students are expected to complete any assigned course work at home, to be on time to class, to bring the necessary class supplies, and to be prepared for the lesson. Students will not be permitted to sit in the back of the classroom and disengage. All students participate.
_____(student initials)

Students are encouraged to make wholesome friendships. Students should look upon one another as brothers and sisters in Christ and refrain from demonstrating romantic affection, or giving the appearance of romantic affection, at Allegiant Academy and sponsored functions.
_____(student initials)

Students are expected to demonstrate appropriateness in dress that exemplifies respect for oneself and for other students. Staff and faculty reserve the right to address the behavior of students who demonstrate a lack of awareness of the underlying principles of modesty and self-respect.
_____(student initials)

Allegiant Academy students are encouraged to break the generational norms of screen/entertainment addiction. Unless the student needs to contact a parent, cell phones should be put away and off while the students are in class, at lunch, and on break. Friendships often develop in the margin before and after class. Students are encouraged to be engaged in the present moment and learn the art of face-to-face conversation.
_____(student initials)

Students are to display courtesy by remaining seated until dismissed, by treating church property with respect, and by cleaning up after themselves. Students are to respect the church facilities by taking care of the classrooms, not marking on the walls or tables, not pulling on wall displays, and by demonstrating care and respect for the buildings with which we have been blessed.

_____(student initials)

It is the student's responsibility to be in an area that is appropriately supervised during all breaks and meals. Students will be signed in and out of class and the campus each day. Students must remain on site during lunchtime/breaks unless signed out by an approved family member.

_____(student initials)

Allegiant Academy students are expected to refrain from immoral and illegal conduct. All weapons, illegal drugs, alcohol, and tobacco products are strictly prohibited from the facilities. Stealing, lying, bullying, cutting, fighting, or other acts of aggression toward oneself or others will be grounds for immediate dismissal from the program.

Part VI: Parent Expectations

I have read and understand the Allegiant Academy Statement of Faith. I understand that Allegiant Academy will teach and operate from a biblical worldview, including praying for students and teaching students how to pray boldly and operate in the Holy Spirit.

_____(initial here)

I understand Allegiant Academy is an academy for Christian homeschoolers and that I/we, as parent(s), in addition to my (our) child/children, must confess Jesus Christ as our Savior to attend.

_____(initial here)

I have read and understand the Allegiant Academy Code of Conduct information, and I agree to abide by the terms listed therein. As a parent, I agree to uphold the Code of Conduct and encourage biblical responsibility regarding student behavior. If I have a disagreement with an Allegiant Academy teacher, student, or parent, I agree to address it in a biblical manner.

_____(initial here)

I understand the educational model set forth by Allegiant Academy is teacher led and parent directed. I understand that I will be responsible for leading my child's education on home days that they are not in attendance at Allegiant Academy and that I have ultimate responsibility for my child's education. I am committed to making sure my child completes all assignments. I understand that Allegiant Academy runs their classes Socratically, so if assignments are incomplete, it affects the class as a whole. Therefore, I understand that all these things above are a requirement for my student to attend Allegiant Academy.

_____(initial here)

I understand that Allegiant Academy's desire is to partner with parents, not to replace them. Allegiant Academy does not provide grades. However, we will work hand in hand with parents to provide training, assessment for your child's in class performance and support for accurate grading. Nor does it serve as the ultimate academic or spiritual authority in the student's life; instead, Allegiant Academy equips parent educators by offering academic support and Christian community. Allegiant Academy also offers multiple homeschool resources to help parents feel equipped to teach and train their children as described in Deuteronomy 6, Malachi 4, Luke 1, Titus 1 and 2, and throughout scripture.

_____(initial here)

Allegiant Academy encourages parents and children to be faithful in service at their local church; to read, pray, and worship together as a family; and to nurture a household culture that supports spiritual development and growth.
